These proofs are submitted so you can be sure your order is set up correctly.
Examine all copy carefully with particular attention to spelling, spacing, color separations, omissions and general appearance. If all items are correct, please sign and return this form promptly.
Any return delay will extend the quoted delivery time of your order.

Please note: Colors on proof are for color separation only and do not convey true printing colors.
Sorry, but we must conform to the industry practice of charging for alterations that were not part of the original copy. Any corrections or changes required will also necessitate a new proof.

This form must be signed and returned before your order can be processed. Telephone okays will not be accepted.
