

Anthrocon 2011

Dining & Services Guide

Introduction

Welcome to Anthrocon 2011!

As with all exertions, the energy required to produce magic comes from what we eat, and we all need to eat to sustain our magicks. The dragon requires his quadruple-decker jalapeno bacon burger – well-done – to maintain his fiery breath. The unicorn would have to switch to bottled water if her morning bagel and Starbucks didn't fuel her horn's purification talents. And no evil wizard can get through the week without a Happy Meal. So it is our pleasure to provide you with this handy, helpful Guide to local comestible nourishment – because you can only pull so many rabbits out of a hat on an empty stomach.

This Guide is sorted by type of cuisine, and includes addresses and phone numbers (updated as of May 2011), as well as ratings gathered from Yelp.com. (In the interest of improving this Guide's accuracy, we encourage you to add your own reviews to the website!)

Whether you're just looking for an inexpensive quick snack, or want to have a fancy dinner, this Guide has more than 120 nearby dining options within a 15-minute walking radius to choose from. The figure below shows a sample entry and what information is included in each. The map grid number refers to the map of the surrounding area, which can be found in the center of this Guide.

The diagram shows a sample entry for August Henry's City Saloon with callouts for the following fields:

- Location Name: August Henry's City Saloon
- Yelp.com Rating: 4.5 stars (represented by 4 full stars and 1 half star)
- Location Number: B3 • 1
- Map Grid Number: B3 • 1
- Phone Number: 412.765.3270

Note that some of the entries will also have special notations after the location name, indicating the following:

- (D) means they offer delivery;
- (V) means they offer vegetarian fare
- (GF) means the bar is known for being gay-friendly

The back pages of this Guide contain information on services, such as convenience stores, copy shops, nearby ATMs, &c.

The back cover provides directions to Station Square, home to additional shops and restaurants. (www.stationsquare.com)
