Basic Fursuit Construction

Friday 4.00 - 5.00p

Mineau the Dolphin

Westin 2 Westmoreland

Rather than specializing in just one media, I tend to enjoy doing a little bit of everything when it comes to art. I have used many media and in the past few years I made a few of my own fursuits, one of which I have used as a mascot for the book I wrote. Let's talk about building a fursuit!

Friday 3.30 - 4.30p

From Concept to Character:

Achieving Fantastical Design and Tailoring a Performance to Match

Friday 3.30 - 5.30p

Tumble Dry Panda

Westin 2 Pennsylvania

Every suiter has a specific goal in mind. Some like to dance, others want to pose for pictures or strike cute poses. Whatever it is you want to do in suit, you want a suit that is going to work with you to achieve it and a performance skill set to match. Have a bizarre character you're not quite sure how to portray? Want to escape the "Smile and Wave"? Just want to be sure people remember you amidst all the other suiters? Expect to expound on your ideas, get up and move around and learn the art of making a fool of yourself as you join long-time puppeteer and character creator Tumble Dry Panda for a hands-on exploration of how to bring your performance from paper to professional.

Fursuit Dance Competition Prelims!

Friday 7.30 - 10.00p

Fursuit Handling

Saturday 10.30a - 12.00p

Shadowrunner

Westin 2 Somerset

This panel is about the reasons Fursuiters need handlers, how to choose one, and the duties of the handler. I will also go into depth on the different dangers suiters face during a con, signs the handler should look for if they think their suiter is in distress and how to handle that situation, and the 3 things a suiter and handler must have: Communication, Trust, and Honesty on both directions. I also teach the basics for suiters and handler to work effectively together, making the con safer and more enjoyable for both.

Introduction to Puppeteering Workshop

Friday 12.00 - 1.00p Nonsanity, Silaria DLCC 315-316
You've watched Muppets in movies and TV and the fandom's own Pawpets on live internet variety shows and YouTube videos. Perhaps you've thought to yourself: Hey, maybe I could do that. Well you can, and we're here to help show you how. Join us and our bushel of fluffy handwarmers to learn how to get started bringing our inanimate friends to life. We'll be talking about where to obtain a puppet, tricks to make your puppet come alive by creating a character, performance tips, and ways to practice your new skills. Bring a puppet to show off or borrow one of ours for this interactive workshop. Think of them as adorable fursuits in miniature.

Stage & Screen, Recording Your Puppets

Friday 1.00 - 2.00p

Nonsanity, Silaria

DLCC 315-316

Getting your puppets seen means either combining an audience with a stage, or capturing them on video for live or recorded playback. We will take you on a tour of the Anthrocon DLCC 315-316 stage and its technical equipment, as well as discuss the basics of video recording at home. Even on a budget, using only the hardware and software that came with your computer, it's possible to create great videos to let your puppets truly shine. We'll discuss Mac, Windows, and cell phone options we've used.

Puppet Improv Workshop

Friday 2.00 - 3.00p

Nonsanity, Silaria

Improvisation provides the necessary skills to bring your puppet character to life whether it's interacting with friends, conversing with strangers on the street, or gracefully maneuvering through unexpected moments that happen during a live show. Our puppeteers will provide you with some tips and techniques you can use to develop your improv skills. Come prepared to participate in some Improv games. Bring your own puppets to show off or borrow some of ours.

Puppet Construction for Everyone

Saturday 9.00 - 10.00a Nonsanity, Cuddles, Springy DLCC 315-316
Wonderful storebought puppets abound, but sometimes you'll want something a little more special. Maybe all you need is a fist and a smear of lipstick ("S'alright?") or maybe you need something a bit more detailed, like a fursuit in miniature. At this panel we'll demonstrate some ideas to get you started making new friends—out of foam and fur. Anything can be a puppet, so the sky's the limit... or perhaps the floor. (In a pinch, I once used my sock and a couple of rubber bands: Socki was born!) Bring the kids too!

Saturday Morning with Jim Martin

Saturday 10.00a - 12.00p Jim Martin DLCC 315-316
Previous Anthrocon Guest of Honor Jim Martin, professional puppeteer and current guardian of The Great Space Coaster Saturday morning TV show, will join us to ply us with stories and videos about puppetry and other related topics. Hear about his work on Sesame Street, or how to control a Teenage Turtle's expression with an RC rig, or how you can help preserve a classic children's TV show from oblivion. Always a fun and enlightening event!

Advanced Puppetry: Voice & Personality in Puppetry

Pawpets Gone Wild!

Saturday 10.30 - 11.30p SonicBlu DLCC 315-316
In case you're wanting more out of your puppetry than a general audience, kid-friendly show like Oh! Pawpets!, you may want to give Pawpets Gone Wild a try. Pawpets Gone Wild is catered toward a more mature crowd, and viewers are also invited to come up to the stage along with us and join us in entertaining the audience. With Pawpets Gone Wild, the sky is generally the limit, however we do ask that you practice common courtesy and respect and be gentle with the puppets if you are not using your own.

You Can Be a Pawpet, Too!

Sunday 12.30 - 1.30p

SonicBlu

Have you ever wanted to give puppetry a try? Would you like to perform alongside the Oh! Pawpets! crew? Come to this event, where the cast of the Oh! Pawpets! Show will give you the opportunity to put on a puppet and perform to music, interact with other Oh! Pawpets! cast puppets, or just have a chat with the audience. Have a puppet of your own? Bring it along and pop it up onto the stage! Don't have one? No problem! The Oh! Pawpets! crew will have plenty of puppets for you to try out. If you wish to perform to music, just let the soundman know which song you wish to perform to, put on a puppet, and lip sync to the music. It doesn't matter how well you do, just have fun with it! SonicBlu and Wolfdog are Pawpets, and with our help, you can be a Pawpet, too!

Lupus In Tabula is a variant of "Werewolf", a social game of deceit, desperation, and deduction. Up to 16 players sit in a circle and, through a series of moderated night and day phases, attempt to determine who among them are werewolves. However, at the same time the werewolves are trying to remain hidden, disguised as villagers! Will the werewolves succeed in deceiving the villagers until it's too late? Or will the villagers deduce the identities of the werewolves before they're all eaten?

The game is designed to be played by outgoing people of all skill levels. Significant amounts of discussion and oration are involved. The conversation frequently leads to hilarity and most players are eager to go another round. Typically, two-to-four rounds are played during an event, lasting until everyone's too tired to continue or the room shuts down. The game has become increasingly popular over the years and has been an official event at the last few conventions.
