Art

Alternatives to Fursuiting

Friday 11:00a-12:00p

Kitty Biscuits

Westin 2 Butler

Whether you're dying of heat in your fursuit or you just can't afford one yet, this panel will teach you the alternative to fursuiting, while still showing off your furry side. We will be discussing animal make-up structure and products, as well as basic ear and tail construction.

Art 1-0-Something

Friday 1:00-2:30p

Kizzneth

Westin 2 Fayette

A general look at art from the perspective of the intermediate artist covering anatomy, time management, and most of all learning from all the chaos of working in the world of furry art.

Elrond & Shujin's Musical Charity Quick-Draw

Friday 8:00-9:30p

Elrond Drakendil & Shujin Tribble

DLCC 413-415

Shujin is a DJ with a twisted sense of humor. Elrond is an artist who can bust out full-on cartoons in less than five minutes. Come watch as Shujin uses everything in his power and every song in his possession to see what the craziest thing Elrond can be inspired to draw. Audience participation heartily encouraged! Originals will be auctioned off ON SITE to benefit the Anthrocon charity.

Sticks and Strings and Things

Saturday 9:00-10:00a

Morgain CrochetTiger

DLCC 316

Do you knit? Crochet? Stitch? Want to come do so in the company of other furs who share your hobby? Come hang out and have a relaxing hour during all the hustle and bustle of the con. Who knows, maybe we can even help each other if you're having trouble with a troublesome section of pattern or you just want try something new!

Introduction to Wet Plate Photography

This is a Meet and Greet panel for anyone interested in Angel Dragons of all kinds themselves! Our doors are open to anyone, Angel Dragon or not, and are more than willing to share our knowledge of Angel Dragons with new friends. We plan to host a series of fun events that include games, photoshoots, and will be raffling off some special prizes, courtesy of some of the panelists. We will also be collecting donations for the Anthrocon charity!

So Your Kid Dragged You To Anthrocon

Friday 12:30-1:30p

Arrow Quivershaft

Westin 2 Cambria

So your kid dragged you here to this “Anthrocon” thing and you’re not quite sure what’s going on or what we’re about. Come share your questions with other chaperones and get to know other people in the same situation as you! Handouts will be provided.

Furry and the Media

Friday 1:00-2:00p

KP, Xydexx

Westin 3 Allegheny

What do you tell a reporter when they ask about the furry fandom? Before you answer, you should stop by this panel so we can teach you the “dos” and “do nots” about dealing with the media. This is an informative and still amusing discussion that everyone should hear.

Fox Hunt

Friday 1:00-2:30p

Rechner Fox, Tane

Westin 2 Armstrong

Learn how to use radio direction finding techniques and put them to the test to find the “fox” transmitter roaming around the con! A stationary fox will also be deployed to help demonstrate the idea to beginners, as well as a moving fox to provide a challenge to both new and the experienced. Those with their own VHF/UHF receivers or scanners are recommended to bring those to use themselves or as part of a team, although no equipment or experience is necessary to participate.

The Dragget Show Live

Saturday 11:00p-12:00a

Alkali, Xander the Blue

DLCC 319-321

Join Xander the Dragon, Alkali the Ferret, and a special guest or two. These guys record a podcast LIVE AT Anthrocon! Come watch as they talk about anything and everything and nothing.

Open Mic & Comedy Basics

Sunday 12:00-1:30a

Alkali

DLCC 319-321

Have a stand-up routine you want to try out? Want to tell a story you think will give us a chuckle? Come try it out at Anthrocon Open Mic! One could not ask for a friendlier atmosphere. After your act, be ready to receive some helpful, good-natured critiques from the panel hosts. All performers are limited to 3 to 5 minute sets depending on the panel turnout.

Furry Text Adventures

Sunday 12:00-1:00p

Draggor

Westin 2 Westmoreland

Gather round, literally, and make your way through some old school text adventures! Draggor, your host, will be subbing in for the computer, so sassy replies are to be expected from sassy commands. There are choices of adventures from classic monsters, space, summer camp, and more!

Celebrity Whose Lion Is It Anyway?

Sunday 4:00-5:00p

Alkali, Draggor, Pandez

DLCC 319-321

Come out and see some of the funniest people in the fandom performing in Improv games. This 100% off the cuff event will go to support our charity, so come one come all and see some of your favorite funny furs make fools of themselves. As with any Improv event, audience participation is bound to happen.

Puppet

Puppetry For Everyone!

Silaria

DLCC 315

Friday 1:00-2:00p

Saturday 4:00-5:00p

DLCC 315

Puppetry is a fun and interactive art form that allows you to perform with anyone on a unique, personal level. If you've ever put a sock on your hand and made it talk; Given a plush or doll a voice and personality; Or openly role played with a costumed character or fursuiter; You've engaged in puppetry! Come by and learn more of the basic skills and techniques used in puppetry and how to bring YOUR character, whether it be small hand puppet or personal fursuit, to life.

Performing with Puppets!

Nonsanity, Silaria

DLCC 315

Friday 4:00-5:00p

Puppetry isn't just locked to the stage. There are many ways to interact with your puppets and audience. In this panel we will touch on the finer points of stage performance, development of scripts and skits, practice basic "improv" skills and show how the two can be used to perform outside the confines of the stage doing "walk-about" puppetry.

Video on a Dime

Silaria

DLCC 315

Sunday 2:00-3:00p

Join us as we discuss ways to share your talents with your friends using the tools and equipment you already have! Whether you want to video your puppetry performances, dance to your favorite song in costume, or become the next YouTube sensation, we'll help you to understand how to use the tools available on your smart phone, tablet or laptop to get you started.

Science

Who to Tell About My Tail: Telling Non-Furs About Being a Furry

Dr. Gerbasi

Westin 2 Armstrong

Friday 11:30a-1:00p

This guided group research chat will be about how people in the furry community decide whether or not they feel comfortable talking about the community with non-community members.

Fursuits, What are They Fur? Fursona(s) & Performances?

Saturday 9:30-11:00a

Dr. Gerbasi, Dr. Alexis Hieu Truong

Westin 2 Lawrence

Saturday 11:00a-12:30p

Westin 2 Lawrence

The IARP/FurScience team invites fursuiters of all species and types for a research group discussion that aims to address some of these questions. We are especially interested to hear from attendees who have prior experience in fursuiting and who would be interested in sharing it with others. Looking forward to seeing you!

Good Fur Day: Self-Confidence, Assertiveness & You

Friday 12:00-1:00p

Riftwing

Westin 2 Somerset

You are invited to join Riftwing for a conversation about self-confidence within the furry community. Unsure how to act near others? Unable to speak your mind? Attend this assertiveness seminar and learn the basics of what it takes to stand up for yourself, speak in front of others, and bring out the leader in you. Make this the first day of the rest of your life, and attack the day!

Furry Parenting: How to Talk with Your Kids About Being a Furry

Friday 1:00-2:30p

Dr. Gerbasi

Westin 2 Lawrence

This guided research group chat will be about how parents in the Furry community manage their own relationships regarding who they tell about being a Furry, and how they guide their children in figuring out who to talk with about their parent being a member of the Furry community, as well as how to handle any stereotypes they might encounter.

Therians, Otherkin, and Nature Research Focus Group

Friday 2:30-4:30p

Dr. Gerbasi

Westin 2 Lawrence

Many therians and Otherkin report having special, intense, or deeply meaningful relationships with the natural world. At this focus group, we will talk about relationships to nature and ecology and how they relate to being therman/Otherkin.

Flying Drones and Multirotors

Friday 3:00-4:00p

Tigran, Shayd

DLCC 407

Interested in getting into the new and growing hobby of flying multirotor aircrafts (or as many call them "drones")? Come hear from two experienced pilots on how to get into this hobby with tips on choosing your first multirotor, how to get the most out of just flying one, tips and tricks to make your experience easier and more fun, and how to use it as a platform for photography and videography.

Therians, Otherkin, and Identity Research Focus Group

Friday 4:30-6:30p

Dr. Gerbasi

Westin 2 Lawrence

This research focus group aims to shed light on these complexities through a discussion of how factors such as race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, neurodiversity, and other factors relate to the therian and otherkin identities.

Achievement Unlocked!: Goal Setting

Friday 6:00-7:00p

Riftwing

Westin 2 Cambria

Wouldn't it be great if real life had achievements like we have in gaming? Get out of bed: +10xp. Smile at a stranger: +100xp. Go to this panel: +10,000xp! Whatever the goal, the best way to get there is to think about how you'll reach that achievement. Plus, there's science behind goal setting, and understanding it can help you to set milestones for your path forward.

AstronoFurs Solar Observatory

Friday 8:00-9:00p

Swift Fox

DLCC North Terrace

Saturday 8:00-9:00p

DLCC North Terrace

Join the AstronoFurs on the convention center's North Terrace to glimpse our nearest star Sol through a special, hydrogen-alpha filtered telescope. This special instrument will allow you to safely view the surface of the sun in stunning detail including sun spots and solar flares. Caution! Never look directly at the sun without proper equipment!

AstronoFurs Star Party

Friday 10:00-11:00p

Swift Fox

DLCC North Terrace

Saturday 10:00-11:00p

DLCC North Terrace

Come and take a tour of the night skies over Anthrocon with the AstronoFurs. Members will be on hand to familiarize you with the late spring/early summer constellations and objects visible under light polluted, urban skies, on the convention center's North Terrace. In the event of inclement weather we will meet on the second floor by the glass elevator for an hour to talk astronomy and answer questions. Just follow the signs, take the "Wonka'vator" all the way to the top, exit onto the terrace, and walk towards the river and look for our telescopes.

Cosplay for Confidence

Saturday 11:00a-12:00p

Riftwing

Westin 2 Cambria

Cosplay and fursuiting can boost your self-confidence, and we'll discuss how during this interactive panel. Learn about how what you wear can influence both how you feel and how it changes the perceptions of others. Then use these skills to create a secret identity: a way to dress for success and use the elements of cosplay to help you gain more confidence and become a better you.

Furry Psychology!

Saturday 3:00-5:00p

Nuka

DLCC 407

Everything you ever wanted to know about furrries (but were too afraid to ask!) Let Dr. Courtney "Nuka" Plante walk you through the weird and wonderful world of furry psychology in this entertaining panel that guarantees you'll learn something new about the furry fandom. You'll also be able to ask questions and suggest topics for future research.

Therian/Otherkin Research and Self-Help Resources

Sunday 12:00-2:00p

Dr. Gerbasi

DLCC 317

In this panel Drs. Fein and Gerbasi from FurScience/IARP will share updates on therian/otherkin research and host a discussion among attendees about what they would suggest as helpful resources for individuals with therian and otherkin identities. Eminent therian Skarlath will co-host, graduate students Jen and Luiggi will also participate!

Raising Pygmy Goats

Sunday 1:00-2:00p

Fizz Otter

Westin 2 Somerset

Goats are often an incredibly under-appreciated species but can be amazingly unique companions to work with. Come learn about what it takes to raise pygmy goats, what you can expect from them as a pet, and some of the fun experiences we have had with them over the past three years in the land of Goatopia!

FurScience/IARP Debriefing Q&A Session

Sunday 3:30-5:00p

Drs. Fein, Gerbasi, McHugh, Plante, Truong

DLCC 407

The IARP/FurScience team members will discuss this year's projects, answer questions and happily receive suggestions for future studies.

Special Events

Consent and Personal Safety

Friday 7:00-8:30p

Erin Zeddies

DLCC 407

Cons are a lot of fun! But it is always important to remember consent and safety when having all that fun. We'll be discussing how to play safe, understand all aspects of consent, and ask those questions you've always wanted answered. Local Educator and con-enthusiast Erin Zeddies is here to help with all these things!

Wheel of Furtune

Saturday 5:00-7:00p

Kijani

DLCC 407

Spin the wheel, solve the puzzle and win tens of thousands of virtual dollars and fabulous trips while avoiding the dreaded "Bankrupt" in this true to life re-creation of America's Game Show hosted by Kijani, a former Wheel of Fortune champion! Contestants will be chosen at random from the audience, and prizes will be awarded to the biggest winners of the day! Come experience the thrill of being on a live game show with your friends at Anthrocon!

Charity Auction

Sunday 12:30-1:30p

Rigel, Uncle Kage

DLCC 407

Our chairman, Uncle Kage, will be auctioning off a variety of interesting and collectible items for the benefit of our charity: Hope Haven Farm Animal Rescue. Please come and help raise funds for our charity ... right here in the great city of Pittsburgh!

Spiritual

Spirit Animal Guided Meditation

Saturday 2:00-3:30p

SteelTheWarrior

DLCC 316

Enjoy this guided meditation by ArchDruid SteelTheWarrior to tap deep into your mind and spirit. Allow yourself a short break from the daily hustle and bustle, and treat yourself by bringing out just what you need to take you through a relaxing and empowering meditation to help balance yourself and recharge your batteries during a busy, high-energy convention. Take an enchanted walk with your totem/spirit-animal/fursona or whatever else that comes to you, and enjoy the ride!

Therianthropy

Saturday 4:30-6:30p

Skarlath, Burr

Westin 2 Butler

Have you ever wondered if Werewolves were real? Ever thought about if there were any truth to the legends of skin walkers, or any other shapechanging animal myth? Perhaps you have not felt entirely human in your own skin? Then this is the place for you! Here, we discuss what therianthropy is, the different kinds, and some brief history of therianthropy. So if you are just curious, have some suspicions, or already in the know, come on by for a fun time, some great discussion, and possibly even some learning!

Christian Furs Fellowship

Sunday 10:00-11:00a

Niqnaq, Commander Kitsune

Westin 2 Butler

This panel is for those that believe Jesus to be their savior or would like to more about what it means. Will include open discussion. Everyone is welcome!

Saturday 10:00a-12:00p

DLCC 411-412

Sunday 10:00a-12:00p

DLCC 411-412

Kitsune is a game about fox-spirits who play tricks while scheming to teach mortal fools about their foolishness. If all goes well, a lesson is taught in the process! Game demos start every two hours throughout each day. Join the foxes and learn to play with us.

Bad Decisions Demo

Thursday 6:00-7:00p	Ian Price	Westin 2 Cambria
Friday 10:00-11:00a		DLCC 411-412
Saturday 10:00-11:00a		DLCC 411-412
Sunday 10:00-11:00a		DLCC 411-412

Want to play Cards Against Humanity, but need something you can play with your mother? Want the absurdity of Mad Libs, without having to write anything? Already made a "bad decision" but want to make more (without the consequences)? Bad Decisions is a card game where players compete to fill in the blanks with the most hilarious suggestion, making headlines out of a setup provided by a rotating judge. New games start every hour, every day. Come make bad decisions with us!

You Bring It; We'll Play It! Magic: the Gathering

Thursday 8:00-10:00p	Tabletop Gaming Staff	Westin 2 Cambria
Friday 6:00-8:00p		DLCC 411-412
Sunday 1:00-3:00p		DLCC 411-412

Do you have a deck of Magic: the Gathering cards sitting idle because you have no one to play with anymore? Bring them to the Tabletop Gaming room and take advantage of the three blocks of time set aside for you to pit your cards against other convention attendees in some friendly pick-up games.

Are You a Werewolf?

Thursday 8:00p-1:00a	Skarlath	Westin 2 Westmoreland
Friday 10:00p-1:00a	BGS	Westin 2 Westmoreland
Saturday 10:00p-3:00a	Skarlath	Westin 2 Westmoreland

Huzzah! You are invited to join the village for fun and exciting game of intrigue and mystery with the added bonus of lynching a friend at the end of each day of play! You'll have the opportunity to play a resident of a quaint rural village, their mystical seer or one of the ravenous werewolves. Your job is to ferret out the werewolves by lynching fellow villagers who you think are the werewolves-in-disguise before they eat you. Fursuiters are welcome.

Writing

Writing Foundations: Beginner

Friday 11:00a-12:00p

Ianus J. Wolf, Fugue, Whyte Yote

DLCC 310-311

This is a great starting talk to attend if you're just beginning to put some words to paper or maybe you've written a few stories and you want to expand your craft. We'll discuss the basics of how to start improving, getting inspiration, a few need-to-know facts for creating more engaging prose and stories, and how to accept, deal with, and benefit from the hierarchy of talent and experience in writing or any other art form. Seasoned writers are also welcome for review and discussion.

Mystery and Noir (Writing)

Friday 12:00-1:00p

Ianus J. Wolf, Bill Rogers

DLCC 310-311

How do you hide a crime when the coppers can literally sniff you out? Who do you trust when your oversensitive ears always pick up the vague whispers that could be plotting against you? We'll talk about answering these questions and more as we dive in to writing furry mystery and Noir. We'll take a look at the differences and similarities in the related genres, the varying forms subgenres can take, and how to drop the right clues in the right places as needed for your furry characters.

Writing Foundations: Intermediate

Friday 1:30-3:00p

Slip-Wolf, Rob Baird, Erin Quinn

DLCC 310-311

Have a few stories or even a novel under your belt? Feel like you're growing, getting positive comments on posting sites and so on? But when you submit for publication, you've still got the form letter blues or other issues you're noticing? Here's the discussion for you. We'll be talking about some intermediate skill boosts including some info on standard plot and structure, methods for improving your characters and making your dialogue more "real", and the how and why of beta readers and editing passes. A discussion for intermediate writers looking for tips and tricks, or anyone that wants to review these sorts of topics.

M.C.A. Hogarth Kaffeeklatsch

Friday 3:30-4:30p

M.C.A Hogarth

DLCC 310-311

Come meet M.C.A. Hogarth, author of the Peltedverse novels (including Ursa Major award-winning "In the Line of Duty") for an informal chat!

How to Write a Review

Friday 5:00-6:00p

crossaffliction

DLCC 310-311

Everyone's a critic, but this panel will help you become better at it. Reviewing is a great way to show your excitement about furry, and this panel will teach you the basics of the review in general, and reviewing movies especially.

Writing Foundations:Advanced

Friday 6:00-7:30p

M.C.A Hogarth, Fugue, Whyte Yote

DLCC 310-311

This is the panel to attend if you've been published a few times (or have experience and following in other regards), made a few achievements and want to keep moving forward. Whether you're just beyond the intermediate wall or a grizzled writing veteran, come to talk about some of the in-depth ins and outs of the editing process, improving your descriptions and scene processing, deciding what to show and what to leave implied, and a variety of other topics. Of course, novices are definitely welcome to listen in on some of the more advanced tricks of the trade.

Readings from Bleak Horizons (Sci-Fi Horror)

Friday 8:00-9:00p

Syr Otter, Ianus J. Wolf, Sparf, Slip-wolf

DLCC 310-311

You know you're all alone on this planet. That scratching at the airlock is just dust grains in the wind. Why do you feel a compelling urge to go check it out? Come listen to selected readings from Bleak Horizons, a new sci fi horror anthology from FurPlanet, by some of the authors involved. You're going to die from whatever is outside that airlock so you might as well enjoy your last few moments.

Business for Creatives

Friday 9:00-10:00p

M.C.A. Hogarth

DLCC 310-311

The writer of the business comic "The Three Jaguars" discusses business basics (and not-so-basics) for the creative professional. Bring your questions to this Q&A session: everything from when to quit your day job to not-slimy marketing to accounting and metrics for the creative business.

Writing After Dark:Adult Content

Friday 10:00p-12:00a

NightEyes DaySpring, Rob Baird, Slip-Wolf, Whyte Yote

DLCC 310-311

A yearly tradition with some fresh faces here and there. Join us once again for an open and frank discussion about the adult side of writing. Whether it's one scene in a larger work or the entire reason for the work, we'll talk about mechanics, word choice, how to not break physics, and all the other related topics to this saucy subject. The only rule is basic respect for those around you. Well, that and: Must be over 18. IDs and badges will be checked at the door.

Readings in Terrible Fiction - Can You Read It?

Saturday 12:00-3:00a Mog Moogle, Ocean Tigrox, Whyte Yote DLCC 310-311
One of our most popular late-night events is becoming a charity drive! Think you can make it through live reading some of the most pathetically putrescent prose published to paper? Well put your donation where your mouth is! Drop a bill into the charity box and see how long you can last reading terrible fiction amidst howls of laughter, epic facepalms, and of course, audience participation. Anyone can listen in, but reading takes whatever you can donate per turn. All proceeds go straight to Anthrocon's charity this year: Hope Haven Farm Sanctuary.

Westerns and Steampunk (Writing)

Saturday 10:00-11:30a Anthrocon Writing Panelists DLCC 310-311
It can be a lot of fun to see how anthropomorphic characters deal with the old west in a variety of forms. What changes from history and what stays the same? What kind of allegories can be drawn for class and social strife of the tumultuous history? We'll tackle these as well as talking about some of the twists on the genre such as Steampunk and Weird Western. And of course, we'll have that age-old debate: Do they still ride horses?

Historical Fiction (Writing)

Saturday 11:30a-1:00p NightEyes DaySpring, Bill Rogers, Slip-Wolf DLCC 310-311
Weaving an engaging fiction from the rich tapestry of history takes on some extra challenges when you're stitching in animal characters. Our panel will discuss several aspects such as research, where to diverge depending on the era, and what the core audience for your fiction often truly expects in terms of accuracy. This year, in honor of our theme, we'll also endeavor to spend a little extra time on the age of early Americana as a setting for your work.

Agent Elrond - Reading

Saturday 3:00-4:30p Elrond Drakendil DLCC 310-311
Join Agent Elrond as she reads from her latest science-fiction/fantasy adventure! Come for the silly voices, stay for the engaging stories! Suitable for all audiences.

Slice of Life (Writing)

Saturday 4:30-6:00p

M.C.A. Hogarth, Mog Moogle, Whyte Yote

DLCC 310-311

Sometimes it's nice to take our furry characters and put them in the place of the real world with real problems. That relatable fiction that shows us a mirror of our own world. But how do we winnow it down to the interesting stuff that keeps people reading? How do we make it compelling and avoid slipping into melodrama or mundanity? We'll discuss these questions and other techniques for writing the best slice-of-life furry stories in this genre panel.

Fur Libs: A Mad Story Game

Saturday 6:30-8:00p

Ianus J. Wolf, Rob Baird, Mog Moogle

DLCC 310-311

Ever wanted to collaborate with some of the most talented and well-known furry authors? Well, the next best thing might be helping to fill in the blanks in a few custom pieces to create a whole new bit of craziness. Come help us turn original furry works into joyous insanity by shouting out suggestions to fill in the blanks and then hearing a dramatic reading of the results. The more suggestions we have, the more fun it'll be.

Submit and Publish

Saturday 8:00-9:00p

Teiran, Fugue

DLCC 310-311

Join a few representatives from some of the biggest names in current furry publishing for a down to earth (and possibly tipsy) discussion of what it really takes to get officially published. You'll hear all about the level of editing expected, how to start your pitch when talking to a publisher, the process of acceptance and contracts, and, of course, plenty of examples of what not to do when getting your foot in the door.

Furry Non-Fiction and Journalism

Saturday 9:00-10:00p

Tantree Sonious McNally, crossaffliction

DLCC 310-311

As our small furry fandom is continuing to grow in size, stories evolving around events within this subculture have begun to increase drastically. As the Ursa Majors introduces the Non-Fiction category to its awards, it is clear that the demand for good documentation of events evolving around the community is coming into fruition. Join our panelists as they discuss techniques in communicating using clear and concise language that will help you catch an audience to your report or blog.

Writing After Dark: Dark and Difficult Topics

Saturday 10:00p-12:00a M.C.A. Hogarth, Slip-Wolf, Mog Moogle DLCC 310-311
The world is not always a happy or pretty place, even when writing about talking animals. For verisimilitude in stories, sometimes it's necessary to actually explore the more horrible side of the nature of society and individuals. Come for a talk about giving topics such as personal violence, addiction, prejudices, and so on the proper gravitas, examining their necessity in the specific work, and dealing as a writer with the personal emotional fallout that can sometimes occur. Must be over 18. IDs and badges will be checked at the door.

Writing After Dark: Stranger Things

Sunday 12:00-1:00a Ianus J. Wolf, Whyte Yote, Teiran DLCC 310-311
No, not a discussion of the amazing series, more an after dark look at the odd desires we sometimes like to write about both in and out of our fandom. Join us for an adult discussion of the strange kinks that you can't get out of your head and so have to put out on paper or screen. We'll take an open and accepting look at a few specific desires as well as a broad brush in the techniques for writing such material. As usual: Must be over 18. IDs and badges will be checked at the door.

Fantasy (Writing)

Sunday 10:00-11:30a M.C.A. Hogarth, NightEyes DaySpring DLCC 310-311
How do the dragons fit in? Are they still great beasts of legend, or just another race that wanders along with your traveling party? Does it change a fantasy story that much to have anthropomorphic characters when the genre outside the fandom often has talking animals in general? Talk about these questions and more with a panel devoted to writing furry fantasy stories and how to create your varied fantasy worlds that work with your characters. We'll discuss mixed universes, fully furry tales, and the nature of the quest that often permeates any fantasy.

Furry Nation: A Very Human Story

Sunday 10:30a-12:00p Joe Strike DLCC 407
Joe Strike's history of furry fandom will be published this fall by Cleis Press. Joe will talk about the challenge of trying to do justice to Furry, to chart its history and explain its appeal—and the personal challenge of deciding how much of himself to reveal in its pages. He will describe the book's evolution, present early cover concepts and read excerpts from his manuscript. The session will end with a free raffle for an autographed copy of "Furry Nation: A very human story."

Science Fiction (Writing)

Sunday 11:30a-12:30p

M.C.A. Hogarth, Slip-Wolf, Bill Rogers

DLCC 407

Do you prefer the cold hard facts of genetic manipulation and exact possible methods of propulsion or do you prefer to play in the “it just does” world of super-science or even strange psychic abilities? There’s room for both in the broad category of science fiction, especially when talking about furry characters and worlds. Here we’ll talk about all things sci-fi, whether you’re plotting your anthropomorphic space opera or getting down to the nitty gritty of a dark dystopian future, as well as all the points in-between.

Writing Technology and Formatting

Sunday 1:30-3:00p

Anthrocon Writing Panelists

DLCC 310-311

Long ago, all you needed to write was parchment, quill, and imagination. And while you can still write that way today, for the professional arena, it’s much handier to have a few technological tools and the know-how to use them properly when working with editors, publishers, etc. Join us for a talk about the proper ways to use word processing software to make your editors (and self-publishing sites) happy and some helpful tools for writing that you may not be aware of.

Horror (Writing)

Sunday 3:30-4:30p

Anthrocon Writing Panelists

DLCC 310-311

What’s truly scary to a six-foot tall lion? Is a creature that drinks blood really a big deal when your neighbor three houses down is a vampire bat? What can different senses of smell and hearing do that might fill us with dread? This is the time to talk about all things scary and slimy in your furry fiction. We’ll discuss some of the different levels and sub-genres of horror, how to get a sense of fear for your anthropomorphic characters, and what can make a concept almost universally terrifying.
