

STRIP DISTRICT

For continuation see Downtown map

The Strip District is a one-half square mile area northeast of downtown Pittsburgh. "The Strip," as it is familiarly known, is just that—a narrow strip of land in a flood plain confined by natural boundaries: the Allegheny River to the north and the extension of Grant's Hill to the south. The Strip District's east and west boundaries are 11th and 33rd streets; the produce district runs from 16th to 22nd streets.

The area has developed into a historic market district with many ethnic food purveyors, some art studios, antique dealers, unique boutiques, and other businesses setting up shop where trains once delivered produce by the ton. The Strip District comes alive primarily on weekends during the summer months when street vendors are selling their wares, the open-air farmer's markets are in full swing, and party-goers sit outside and enjoy a drink.

GUESTS OF HONOR

Kékéflipnote / Kévin Gemin

Anthrocon is honored to welcome animator and anthropomorphic GIF creator Kévin “Kékéflipnote” Gemin! A self-taught animator, Kéké obtained his diploma as a practical draftsman from Émile Cohl Art School in Lyon, France. He cites animals, especially birds, as being a huge source of inspiration and finds it crucial to share joy and happiness through what he draws. We are thrilled to have him share that joy with our attendees this year! Find his work online on Twitter and Instagram (@kekeflipnote), and on YouTube at youtube.com/kekeflipnote.

Sokyokukokoh

Joining us from the Land of the Rising Sun is the dynamic duo of Sokyokukokoh: Twin foxes symbolized by yin and yang, Bokku and Sekku. They are talented performers of the traditional Wadaiko (Japanese Drum) and known to have dazzled the audiences at eastern furry conventions such as IMoF, Osaka Furry Fun Festa, and Infurnity just to name a few. They are also joined by the notable Shinobue bamboo flutist tiger, Hashita Kaoru, and have brought their wonderful art-form to our city!

SueDeer / Susan Rankin

Susan has been in the fandom for a good long time (26 years?) starting out in the bad old days of alt.fan.furry and IRC. In fact, Albany Anthrocon '97 was her first furry convention. Not long after, she became an Anthrocon panelist, then an artist track advisor, and by Anthrocon 2000 she'd been promoted to Director of Anthrocon Programming.

She is probably best known for her comic, "A Doemain of Our Own" (www.Doemain.com), which ran from 1999 to 2008. Her work has also appeared in Spontoon Island and she was an artist off and on for "NeverNever," (The Gneech). You'll also find a bit of her recent work in Jade Claw: Book of Corals, which ought to be in the dealers' room now at the Sanguine Productions table!

These days, "SueDeer" is often seen playfully harassing the usual suspects on Twitter (@SueDeer2), and in Twitch and YouTube streams, traveling to conventions to see all that's changed during her hiatus, and meeting and talking to as many of you as she can! Otherwise, she's spending most of her time honing her craft, trying not to pick up new ones, and working on stories. She hopes to produce some goofy picture books and her first graphic novel in the near-ish future!

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The following general rule supersedes all others listed below and may be invoked at any time:

Any action or behavior that causes significant interference with convention operations, excessive discomfort to other attendees, or adversely affects Anthrocon's relationship with its guests, its venues, or the public is strictly forbidden and may result in permanent suspension of membership.

Introduction

This is the Standards of Conduct for Anthrocon, Inc. and all events sponsored by Anthrocon, Inc; these entities are referred to as 'Anthrocon' henceforth.

The primary purpose of Anthrocon is for our attendees to have fun. To ensure that the greatest number of people do so, we have established these Standards of Conduct. These rules are to ensure that the behavior of any one small group does not disturb the membership as a whole, and does not detract from the comfortable atmosphere of the convention. Anthrocon welcomes all parties with an interest in anthropomorphic animals; however, the convention's management reserves the right to deny or revoke the membership of any individual at any time for any reason.

Anthrocon also reserves the right to amend these rules at any time without prior or posted notice and reserves the sole right of interpretation. Anthrocon has additional rules beyond those listed in the Standards of Conduct, including a Health Policy and a Refund Policy. These rules must also be followed by attendees. In any dispute, the general rule above will apply. If you have any questions, please contact our staff for assistance. Anyone who accepts a membership agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Anthrocon from any claim for personal injuries or other damages or equity arising out of any individual's activities at Anthrocon, even if such injury or damage is caused by negligence by or on the part of Anthrocon.

As a condition of membership, all Anthrocon attendees are required to abide by these standards of conduct for the entire duration of their stay, even prior to Opening Ceremonies or after Closing Ceremonies.

General Rating of the Convention

All convention space is considered to be "PG" at all times, with the exception of events or exhibits that are specifically noted to be inappropriate for minors and with access only for adults.

Public displays of affection should be kept to those appropriate for polite company. Please express your devotion to your significant other either in appropriate ways, or in private.

Clothing Guidelines

Any Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), such as masks, required by venues or other Anthrocon policies must be worn.

Shirts, pants/shorts/skirts, and footwear must be worn when in areas of hotels or the convention center that are accessible to non-attendees, such as lobbies, restaurants, and concourses, except for hotel swimming pools. Full-body fursuits qualify as shirts, pants, and footwear provided that the costume is not unacceptably suggestive. Fursuiters must respect the policies of hotels and other venues regarding areas where costumes are not allowed, which may include restaurants and hotel swimming pools.

When in public areas, attendees may not wear clothing or accessories which are overly revealing, inappropriate to the atmosphere of the convention, or likely to draw reasonable complaint or offense. This includes clothing or accessories that are fetish-related or restrict mobility, such as a leash attached to an otherwise acceptable collar.

Police uniforms or outfits which may be easily mistaken for such are only to be worn by law enforcement in service.

Some normally inappropriate clothing or accessories may be included as part of a costume if Anthrocon's Safety team grants specific approval.

Public Decorum

No items of any kind may be thrown, flown, or dropped from hotel or Convention Center balconies or patios.

No water pistols, silly string, or any thrown, flown, or projectile item may be used in any area of hotels or the Convention Center.

Lighter-than-air balloons may not be brought into the Convention Center.

For safety, only handheld glowsticks are permitted in the dances. Glowsticks on strings or on polearms must be cleared with Safety staff before being used. The decision of the Safety staff on any particular item will be final.

Please do not sleep in convention space or hotel lobbies; return to your hotel room or home.

Anthrocon attendees must abide by instructions given by Anthrocon Safety staff. Failure to do so will result in loss of membership privileges. Any disputes or concerns may be addressed onsite at Convention Operations.

Anthrocon convention space is open only to members, and all attendees should wear their membership badges at all times. A badge is valid only for the person to whom it was issued; badges may not be shared under any circumstances.

Knowingly transporting, hosting, or otherwise enabling an individual that is unwelcome at Anthrocon to attend or enter convention space will result in permanent revocation of Anthrocon membership privileges.

Harassment

Harassment of any kind will not be tolerated at the convention. If you have been the target of harassment, we urge you to report the incident immediately to a member of Safety or to Convention Operations. The sooner an issue is reported to us, the more appropriately we can address it.

Harassment includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Physical assault, battery, stalking, or unwelcome physical attentions.

(b) Conduct, dress, or speech that targets, threatens, intimidates, or is otherwise intended to cause distress to other attendees, or members of protected classes (such as those based on race, age, religion, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual identity).

If people tell you “no” or ask you to leave them alone, your business with them is done. If you continue to attempt contact with them, you may be removed from the premises and have membership privileges permanently revoked. Remember: “A costume does not imply consent.”

Attendance by Minors

Anyone who is under the age of 18 years at any time during the convention must present a signed and notarized parental permission form unless accompanied by a parent or able to produce evidence of legal emancipation. There are no exceptions.

Minors are not permitted under any circumstances to enter areas designated for mature audiences.

Anyone providing false documentation of identity or age will be denied membership and reported to the police.

Service Animal Policy

Pets are not permitted in convention space. Service dogs (as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act or ADA, Title II) are permitted in convention space provided that they are under appropriate control. Emotional Support Animals and Therapy Animals are NOT considered service dogs by the ADA, and are not permitted in convention space.

Hotel Party Policy

Gatherings in hotel rooms must not make noise that can be heard in neighboring rooms during nighttime hours. Hotel doors must be kept shut during such gatherings and guests are not permitted to congregate in the hotel corridors.

Loud parties will be given a single warning to remain quiet. No second warnings will be given before action is taken by the hotel to remove the offending individuals.

Hotel guests who host any gathering are responsible for cleaning up afterward. Please plan to bag excessive amounts of trash so that housekeeping is not overburdened.

Other Hotel Matters

Any act of vandalism, deliberate or excessive damage to hotel property, or interference with any hotel or Convention Center workers in the performance of their duties will result in permanent revocation of Anthrocon membership, criminal prosecution, fines, or any combination thereof.

Please do not affix anything to the walls or doors in any hotel or Convention Center, to the elevators, to Anthrocon signage, or to hotel room doors.

The person in whose name a room is rented is solely responsible for the conduct of all individuals in the room as well as for the condition of the room. Excessive trash, soiling or other damage to hotel property, or any circumstance that may present a hazard to hotel housekeeping staff may result in permanent loss of Anthrocon membership privileges.

Hotel Housekeeping staff are required by corporate policy to inspect every room once per day, even if the room is not to be serviced. In some of our partner hotels, Housekeepers will delay their rounds for our benefit, and will initially bypass rooms with “do not disturb” signs on the doors. At the end of their rounds they must return to those rooms and will knock on the door. Attendees must allow housekeeping staff access to the room to inspect it at that time, even if the “do not disturb” sign is displayed.

Overly large requests for room amenities such as towels and pillows will not be honored. Kindly bring such extra items from home if you anticipate the need.

Sales of Goods and Services

The offering for sale of any goods or services at the convention may only occur in appropriate and authorized areas of convention space, only at authorized times, and only by registered, authorized vendors of the area in question. In all cases sales will be governed by the applicable rules of each area, such as the Dealer Rules & Information Packet for the Dealers Room. Unauthorized sales of any goods or services may result in revocation of membership.

Smoking, Alcohol, and Substance Abuse

Smoking is not permitted in any area inside the Westin or the Convention Center. This includes electronic cigarettes, at the request of venue management. Smokers are asked to use designated smoking areas, to properly dispose of cigarette butts, and to comply with any other venue rules.

Anthrocon asks that any bottled alcoholic beverages be brought promptly to hotel rooms for storage or responsible consumption. No alcoholic beverages may be brought into nor consumed in convention space, except during designated programming events. Anyone knowingly or unknowingly providing alcohol to anyone under the age of 21 may be removed from the convention and be turned over to the authorities. It is the sole responsibility of persons serving alcohol in room parties to ensure that every person in attendance is over the age of 21, even if that person is not drinking alcohol. The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board is extremely serious about this law and we ask our members to respect it.

The sale, distribution, or use of any illegal or controlled substances is not welcome at Anthrocon. Any individual found to be distributing such substances will be removed and reported directly to the authorities. For safety, any obviously intoxicated or impaired attendees will be asked to return to their room or seek medical attention until the effects have passed.

Weapons Policy

No actual weapons or any item that can be easily mistaken for one may be carried either openly or concealed at any time in convention space, regardless of any government permits which you may possess. Exceptions may be made only for duly appointed law enforcement officers by prior arrangement with the Safety Department. Personal pocket knives with single-edged blades less than 4 inches long are permitted.

Realistic weapon replicas are permitted as part of a costume only during costume events such as the Fursuit Parade and must be appropriately peace-bonded; ask the Safety Department for instruction on how to do so. They must be cased or otherwise secured when being carried outside of costume.

Media Relations and Use of Anthrocon Images or Footage

All journalists, media photographers, and any other members of the press are required to display an official Anthrocon Press Badge or be accompanied by a senior Anthrocon staff member at all times while in convention space. Members of the press who have not been issued a Press Badge may not conduct interviews or take photographs, audio or video footage without an escort.

If members of the media are present, attendees must act responsibly. Media representatives who do not have Press Badges and are not escorted by an Anthrocon staff member should be reported to Anthrocon Safety staff or to Convention Operations immediately. Do not speak to any unbadged and unescorted members of the press!

Anthrocon members should be aware that audio and/or video recordings are frequently made in convention space and that their likenesses may appear in those recordings. Individual members agree to assign without compensation the use of their likeness(es) at Anthrocon for the use of promotional material such as highlight videos.

The name “Anthrocon” and the Anthrocon logo are registered service marks of Anthrocon, and must not be used in any fashion that disparages or dilutes that mark. Members agree to remove from circulation or publication any image or recording that in the sole opinion of Anthrocon, Inc. misrepresents or defames its service mark.

Payments and Money Matters

Anthrocon accepts most major credit and debit cards. Chargebacks (denying a charge) that are made for the sole purpose of avoiding payment, that are made without sufficient cause, or that are made without first attempting to resolve the dispute with Anthrocon may result in permanent revocation of membership privileges and possible legal action.

Checks that are presented against insufficient funds will be charged a fee of $30 per check.

Members who have an outstanding balance due to Anthrocon must settle that balance before being permitted to attend the convention.

Please note that Anthrocon is a 501(c)7 nonprofit organization. As such, donations to the organization are not deductible from individual U.S. Federal income taxes.

Anthrocon cannot involve itself in financial disputes between individual members, and cannot divulge information about an individual member to any party other than to banking officials or legal authorities.

Miscellaneous Notes

The standards of conduct for Anthrocon will be enforced by Anthrocon Safety Staff. Please remember that your membership badge is the property of Anthrocon, and must be presented and/or surrendered to any Staff member requesting it. If you have any problem with any action taken by a Staff member you may take the matter up with the Safety Head or with Anthrocon’s Chairman.

Please be reminded that these rules involve “worst-case” scenarios and are put into place to ensure the safety and comfort of our members. They are also not all-inclusive; in all cases, the singular rule that supersedes all others is, “Any action or behavior that causes significant interference with convention operations, excessive discomfort to other attendees, or adversely affects Anthrocon’s relationship with its guests, its venue, or the public is strictly forbidden and may result in revocation of membership privileges.”

We anticipate no difficulties, as our members as a whole are rational and responsible people. Anthrocon is prepared to handle difficulties as efficiently as possible should they occur. We thank our members for their past cooperation and for their continued assistance in making this a safe and enjoyable experience for everyone. Please remember to be courteous of those around you, and have fun!

ANTHROCON 2022 DINING GUIDE

Welcome to Anthrocon 2022's dining guide, wherein you can find grapes for the fox and plenty of food to go around! Here's some interesting facts from Ancient Greece!

- * Ancient Greeks mostly used their hands to eat, and would use bread to soak up broth and soups.
- * The daily consumption of meat was considered barbaric. Drinking milk was also considered barbaric.
- * Ancient Greeks also considered it barbaric to drink wine without watering it down (sorry, Uncle Kage)!
- * The oldest known pies were made in the 5th century B.C. Greece. Known as "artocreas," they were hash meat pies with only a bottom crust.

This Guide is sorted by type of cuisine, and includes addresses and phone numbers (updated as of May 1, 2022).

Whether you're just looking for an inexpensive quick snack or want to have a fancy dinner, this Guide has more than 100 nearby dining options within a 15-minute walking radius to choose from. The figure below shows a sample entry:

Est. Average Price
Price range is the approximate cost per person for a meal including one drink, tax, and tip.
$ = Cheap, Under $10
$$ = Moderate, $11 - $25
$$$ = Spendy, $25 - $50

Wildlife Works, Inc is a volunteer-based, non-profit organization serving Westmoreland County and surrounding areas, dedicated to the rehabilitation and release of distressed wildlife and the promotion of responsible attitudes about the preservation of native species, habitat, and the environment.

WWI rehabilitates injured, ill, and orphaned mammals, songbirds, and birds of prey who have been victims of human interference, environmental contamination, or habitat destruction. Because people and their activities are often responsible, directly or indirectly, we believe we are obligated to help these wildlings.

WWI is not federally funded and exists entirely on donations. Dedicated volunteers donate hundreds of hours assisting in the care of animals, fundraising, and helping with emergencies.

Current fundraising efforts are going toward WWI's Nature Center, a project that has already received generous support from the Anthrocon community during the pandemic.

ART SHOW INFORMATION

ANTHROCON ART SHOW BIDDING RULES

The Anthrocon Art Show is an exhibit of original artworks of a science fiction, fantasy and/or “fannish” nature, especially relating to anthropomorphic animals. Here you will find for sale both flat (e.g. sketches and paintings) and 3-dimensional (e.g. sculpture and costumes) artwork created by professional and amateur artists.

To be a “bidder” (i.e. a prospective buyer of original artwork) you must:

1. Be a registered member of Anthrocon, as evidenced by your convention badge;
2. Obtain a bidder number at the Art Show table by filling out and signing a bidder information sheet, acknowledging that you agree to abide by these bidding rules.

If you wish to place “proxy” bids on behalf of someone not in attendance, please ask a crew member at the Art Show front table to see the Art Show Director.

Significant changes from previous versions of these rules are indicated in bold type.

Areas of the Art Show

There are two distinct areas of the Art Show:

1. In the General Gallery, you will see original artwork depicting subjects suitable for all ages to view. This will be open for silent (written) bidding during the day and early evening Friday and Saturday, and Sunday morning. If a piece receives enough written bids by noon Sunday, it will be sent to the general voice auction Sunday afternoon.
2. The Mature Gallery is set aside for the display of original artwork depicting mature subject matter, to be viewed only by Anthrocon attendees aged 18 and older. This will be open during the same hours as the rest of the Art Show Friday and Saturday, and monitored to keep minors out. Pieces in this area which receive enough written bids by Saturday evening will be sent to a separate voice auction later Saturday evening.

Bidding

Each piece of artwork is tagged with a Bid Sheet which provides information about that piece, including its title, the medium, the name of the artist, and the minimum bid at which the artist is willing to sell the piece. If an artist does not wish to sell a given piece, it is listed as “NFS” (Not For Sale).

The Bid Sheet contains several lines where you may write down your name, bidder number, and the amount you wish to bid for that item. The amount of the bid must be in whole dollars, at least as much as the minimum bid specified by the artist, and larger than any preceding bid on the bid sheet. Write legibly on the next numbered bid line. If all the bid lines are filled, the piece will go to voice auction; please inform an Art Show crew member so that we may get it ready. Do not cross out any previously written bids, including your own even if you make a mistake — instead, please inform an Art Show crew member so we may fix the bid sheet so there are the correct number of empty bid lines.

You may not interfere with or intimidate someone who wants to outbid you. Allow them to place their bid, and then outbid them on the next bid line. If someone tries to keep you from placing a bid, seek assistance from an Art Show crew member. Anyone caught interfering with bidding will be asked to leave the Art Show, and their bidding privileges revoked.

Artists (or their associates) may not place bids on their own artwork with the intent of bidding up the price unfairly, or to keep other bidders from purchasing a piece in order to retain it to sell elsewhere under more favorable circumstances. However, they are allowed to place “proxy” bids on behalf of a customer not in attendance after obtaining authorization by the Art Show Director to do so.

Written bidding for General Gallery artwork closes at noon Sunday. The Art Show will be cleared of all bidders at that time, as detailed below. Pieces with enough written bids (as shown on the bid sheet) will be placed in the voice auction, which begins Sunday at 2 pm; all other art will be sold to the person with the highest written bid, if any. At the voice auction, the art is open to further bids by other people. Therefore, you should attend the voice auction to defend your bids on pieces you still want to buy. If there are no voice bids, the art will be sold to the person with the highest written bid. Although there are “runners” showing off the auction pieces, this is for identification, not admiration. Please take the time to examine the artwork closely while the show is open for written bidding!

For pieces in the Mature Gallery, the procedure is similar, although the times are different. Written bidding ends Saturday at 6 pm. Artwork with enough written bids will be placed in a separate voice auction for mature artwork which begins at 11 pm Saturday, and runs similarly to the General Gallery voice auction, as noted above.

All artwork sold by written bid or in either voice auction will be available for pickup Sunday during sales hours, 2 to 5 pm. Artists have the option of setting a “Price After Closing.” If a piece has received no written bids by closing time, it may be available at the indicated price Sunday afternoon if the artist still wishes to sell it. If this is the case, the blank bid line #1 will be circled in red. Fill in your name, bidder number, and the “Price After Closing” when collecting your artwork.

Be careful. When placing a written bid on items, assume that you will be the winning bidder on all of them. In this way, you will avoid having to pay for more art than you can afford to buy. If you have reached your limit for Art Show purchases, wait until you have lost an item to a higher bidder before bidding on another item. (Keep in mind that we must collect 7% sales tax on purchases, so allow for this in your figuring.) We provide handy Bidding Record forms so you can keep track of what you’ve bid on and where it’s located to make it easy for you to find again.

Also, return to the Art Show before closing (6 pm Saturday for mature artwork; noon Sunday for everything else) to check the bid sheets to see what items, if any, you have won by written bid and which items will be going to the voice auction. After closing, because the crew is busy getting ready for the auction, we cannot accommodate anyone who wants to check their bids at that time.

Be serious. Do not make a bid unless you mean it. A bid is a binding obligation to buy that art at that price.

If you are the winning bidder, you purchase only the physical possession of the artwork; the artist retains the copyright. If you wish to make copies of a piece you purchase, or utilize the art for a commercial purpose, you must negotiate for the right to do so with the artist, whose name and contact information are on the back of each piece or can be obtained from the Art Show Director. (Please Note: Artists are provided with the names of those who have purchased their artwork. When signing up to bid, buyers may choose to allow us to share their contact info with artists on the sales report artists receive.)

Defending Your Bids

When the written bidding closes, crew members will form a “moving wall” starting at the back of a section and moving forward, closing bidding by artist (not by piece, not by panel, not by bay). The closeout path is shown on the Art Show map handout and poster. Closeout is done per artist in a bay: if there are three artists in a bay, there will be three closeouts in the bay; if one artist takes up the entire bay, the entire bay closes at once; and if an artist occupies more than one bay, each of their bays closes separately.

We move quickly, so when the “wall” gets to an artist you want to bid on, do your bidding before the auctioneer declares the artist “closed.” We will not close an artist while bidding is going on, but if there is no bidding, it will close quickly, so don’t be timid—if you want to bid, bid! We can’t wait for someone to make up their mind at the last second. We want you to get your chance to bid, but do it quickly!

You will be allowed to defend your bids, but you may not block anyone else from bidding on any piece—the auctioneer and Art Show crew will see that it doesn’t happen. If you are not actively guarding your bids, we ask that you clear the aisles at least 10 minutes before the show closes. There are a lot of people in the area, and we need to move them out as quickly as possible when closeout begins. If you are just having a conversation with someone, please take it outside the Art Show.

All this allows you to defend bids in more than one section. The Art Show crew follows close behind the “wall,” marking final bids to ensure that if you’re the last bid, you are the last bid. Once the “wall” passes a point, no one except Art Show crew are allowed beyond it.

Sales

Art Show Sales will take place Sunday from 2 to 5 pm. (If you have an afternoon ride, flight, train or bus to catch, please ask in advance about early sales pickup.) At this time you must personally pick up and pay for all items of art you have won by written bid or voice auction. You must show your con badge for identification, and additional identification may be requested.

If you have items in the Mature Gallery, these pieces must be paid for and wrapped before you can take them out of the Mature Gallery.

Collect your art from the panels and tables. Keep the bid sheets attached to the artwork! If you have purchased more pieces than you can carry, or need access to a locked display case, ask for help from an Art Show crew member.

If you won an item at the voice auction, after the auction it will be returned to the panel on which it was originally displayed; if you can’t find it, it may still be in transit — please ask an Art Show crew member for assistance.

Go to a cashier, who will verify that you are the winning bidder, ring up your items, and take your payment. We accept cash, traveler's checks, personal checks, credit cards (Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover), and debit cards (all major networks). ID may be requested at time of payment.

If you are buying items in both the General and Mature Galleries, collect your General Gallery items first, then your Mature Gallery items, and pay for all your items at one of the cashiers in the Mature Gallery. (After paying, mature artwork must be bagged or wrapped before you take it out of the Mature Gallery.)

You must pick up and pay for your own purchases, and show the receipt to the entrance guard when you leave the Art Show (so keep it handy). All sales are final and all items are sold as-is; refunds will not be issued for items purchased in the Art Show for any reason.

Occasionally there are errors in tallying sales. We always pay the artist based on the final bid sheet price; if it turns out we under- or overcharged you, in the weeks following the con we will bill you or refund the difference.

Remember: You bid, you buy. Your bid is a binding obligation with Anthrocon and the artist for the purchase of the artwork if yours is the highest bid.

If you do not pick up your artwork and/or do not pay for it in full, we will contact you in the weeks after the convention and bill you for the price of the art plus packing and shipping costs (typically $20-$30 for those in the USA). You will be unable to receive a membership badge to attend future Anthrocon conventions until you honor your payment obligation. Once you've paid, we will ship you the artwork if available.

(After two years, unclaimed artwork may be donated to the Charity Raffle/Auction, or otherwise bestowed, but this does not discharge your obligation; we have already paid the artist, so you must reimburse us.) Until you pay, your real name and badge name may be posted publicly so that others may be wary of doing business with you.

If you do not pick up and pay for your artwork at the con more than once without good reason, you will not be allowed to participate in future Anthrocon Art Shows.

Checks which do not clear the bank will be assessed a service charge of at least $30. Persons who present fraudulent checks, unauthorized credit cards or counterfeit money will be reported to the authorities.
